Day 2 :- Siem Reap

After breakfast, visit the ancient city of Angkor Thom, Bayon Temple, and Ta Prohm Temple (famous for “Tomb Raider”). After lunch, shop for Cambodian gems, then enjoy a relaxing massage. In the afternoon, visit Angkor Wat. Dinner is served at a 5-star hotel, followed by a visit to the night market and Pub Street.

Breakfast Lunch Dinner

Day 3 :- Siem Reap - Phnom Penh

After breakfast, you will head to Phnom Penh by VIP bus or private coach, with the journey lasting around six hours. Upon arrival, you'll visit the Naga World Casino, the only casino in Phnom Penh. Then, you will take a scenic drive along the Royal Palace, riverside, and Pub Street area, enjoying views of the Mekong River. After dinner, you will check in to your hotel for the night.

Breakfast Dinner

Day 4 :- Phnom Penh

Start your day with breakfast at the hotel before visiting several notable sites in Phnom Penh, including Wat Phnom Hill, Daun Penh Statue, the Independence and Victory Monuments, and the statue of King Sihanouk, the father of Cambodia’s independence. You will also visit the Royal Palace and the Silver Pagoda, which still serves as the royal residence today. After lunch, you'll visit the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, a former high school turned prison during the Khmer Rouge regime. You will also have time to explore the Central Market, a landmark from the French colonial era. In the evening, enjoy a riverside dinner with Khmer cuisine, offering views of the Mekong River, before returning to the hotel.

Breakfast Lunch Dinner

Day 5 :- Phnom Penh Departure

Breakfast at hotel, free leisure until time sends to airport for flight back home.
